"McElhiney Mansion"
St. Charles, Mo.

This mansion was erected in 1845 by Dr. Wm. G. McElhiney. He was born in 1798 and a native of Baltimore. Was graduated from the University of Maryland and was appointed Brigade Surgeon by the Governor.

Dr. McElhiney came to St. Charles in the year 1837. He was a very prominent man in this community. He was one of a Committee who notified Franklin Pierce of his election to Presidency.

It is a two story and attic brick house. Wood cornice on front ends at stone stop blocks which receive gable parapets. The large two story porch on rear was added within recent years.

Information: Pioneer Families of Missouri, and Mrs. George McElhiney, Historian, D.A.R. St. Charles, Mo.

EUGENE L. PLETSCH.
